

Course Overview

---

Business laws is one of the new courses in the Management Study Program curriculum, this course is a common course which supports and enhances students' competency in following the Management study program.

This main reference book tries to provide understanding regarding Business Laws.

- Module 1: Introduction to Business Laws, this first module is the basis of the next module which will assist you in learning the aspects of laws in business activities.
- Module 2: Agreement Laws and Insurance, provides knowledge regarding the basics of legal relationships that arise in business activities and serves as the basis of the next module.
- Module 3: Company Laws and Limited Company laws, explains about the legal relationships which arise in operating a company, for the purpose of providing thorough understanding and definitions about limited companies in practices which are applicable in the business world.
- Module 4: Intellectual Property rights Laws and Banking Laws, explains about the legal protection of intellectual properties in the fields of knowledge, art, literature or technology which may be utilized for the purpose of elevating the nation and country's prosperity.
- Module 5: Capital market Laws and Commercial Paper Laws, explains about the knowledge regarding the laws that arise in capital market activities and the legal relationships which arise in payment traffic.
- Module 6: Business competition Laws and Consumer Protection, explains about the business competition laws aspect and consumer protection and the prohibition of monopolistic practices and unhealthy business competition as well as the supervisory commission.

Competency Map

Business Laws/IEEKMA4316/2 Credit Units

