

Course Overview

International Law courses are courses offered by various study programs and especially compulsory courses for Law students.

International Law which is also often referred to as Public International Law explains various aspects and basic principles of International Law including the theory underlying the emergence of International Law, the basis for the application of International Law, sources of International Law, law of diplomatic relations, space law, humanitarian law, international organizations and settlement of disputes under international law. This subject matter book is intended for students or anyone who wants to study Public International Law in general and without any prerequisites for studying it. However, an understanding of legal theory really helps you to have a better understanding of International Law material. After studying this subject matter book, students are expected to be able to analyze international problems based on international law theory to build arguments and suggestions in order to solve international problems. In particular, Students will be expected to:

1. Explains the basic principles of International (Public) Law.
2. Explain the basis of the implementations of International Law.
3. Describe the sources of International law.
4. Explain the subject of international law.
5. Explain the relationship between International Law and National Law.
6. Explain the theory that forms the basis of recognition in international law.
7. Explain the importance of land, sea and air territory of a country.
8. Explain the basis of diplomatic and consular relations between countries.
9. Explain the principles and rules of space law.
10. Explain the principles and rules of humanitarian law.
11. Describe the roles and functions of international organizations.
12. Analyzing problems and resolving international disputes according to international law.

Complimentary to this subject matter book, you can visit various open learning resources on the Internet, such as: www.un.org.

Competency Map
International Law/IEHKUM4206/4 credit units

