Table of Contents

Course Overview vii

Module 01 1.1
Why Should We Teach English to Young Learners?

Unit 1 1.4
TEYL as a Global Trend

Unit 2 1.12
TEYL in Indonesia

Unit 3 1.21
Issues Related to TEYL

Module 02 2.1
How Children Develop and Learn

Unit 1 2.4
Learning and Teaching English Vocabulary

Unit 2 2.11
Piaget's Constructivism Theory

Unit 3 2.23
Vygotsky's Social Construction

Unit 4 2.30
Children as Language Learners

Module 03 3.1
Learning and Teaching Vocabulary & Grammar

Unit 1 3.4
Learning and Teaching English Vocabulary

Unit 2 3.23
Teaching Grammar for Young Learners

Unit 3 3.33
Vocabulary and Grammar are Interdependent

Module 04 4.1
Learning and Teaching Spoken Skills

Unit 1 4.4
Listening and Speaking as the Main Skills in EYL Class

Unit 2 4.16
Teacher Talk

Unit 3 4.24
Teaching Listening

Unit 4 4.38
Teaching Speaking

Module 05 5.1
Learning and Teaching Written Skills

Unit 1 5.4
Development of Children Initial Literacy

Unit 2 5.13
Learning and Teaching Reading

Unit 3 5.34
Learning and Teaching Writing in EYL

Module 06 6.1
Various Learning Media and Activities as Contexts for Using English

Unit 1 6.5
Reasons for Using Media in The Class and Selecting Right Media for Students' Learning

Unit 2 6.15
Traditional and Modern Learning Media

Unit 3 6.58
Activities in The Class

Module 07 7.1
Managing Young Learner Classes

Unit 1 7.4
Teacher versus Caregiver

Unit 2 7.14
Classroom Control and Discipline

Unit 3 7.26
Identifying and Addressing Disruptive Behavior

Unit 4 7.38
Classroom Language

Module 08 8.1
Assessing Young Learner

Unit 1 8.4
The Purposes of Assessment

Unit 2 8.15
Assessment of Young Learners

Unit 3 8.26
Assessment Technique

Module 09 9.1
Becoming a Professional EYL Teacher

Unit 1 9.5
Material Selection and Adaptation

Unit 2 9.14
Lesson Planning

Unit 3 9.22
Being a Good Model of English Speaker

Unit 4 9.27
Reflective Teaching

About the Authors 9.47